

Fire Alarm Technician

A Career that Helps Keep People Safe

HEALTH and SAFETY management college

What Does a Fire Alarm Technician Do?

- Test, inspect and repair fire alarm systems
- Work with fire alarm panels, detectors, wiring, software and more
- Uses safety codes and regulations every day

Is It For You?

- ✓ You like using technology, tools, and gadgets.
- ✓ You enjoy solving problems and fixing things.
- ✓ You notice small details others miss.
- ✓ You care about helping people stay safe.
- ✓ You prefer moving around and visiting new places over sitting at a desk.

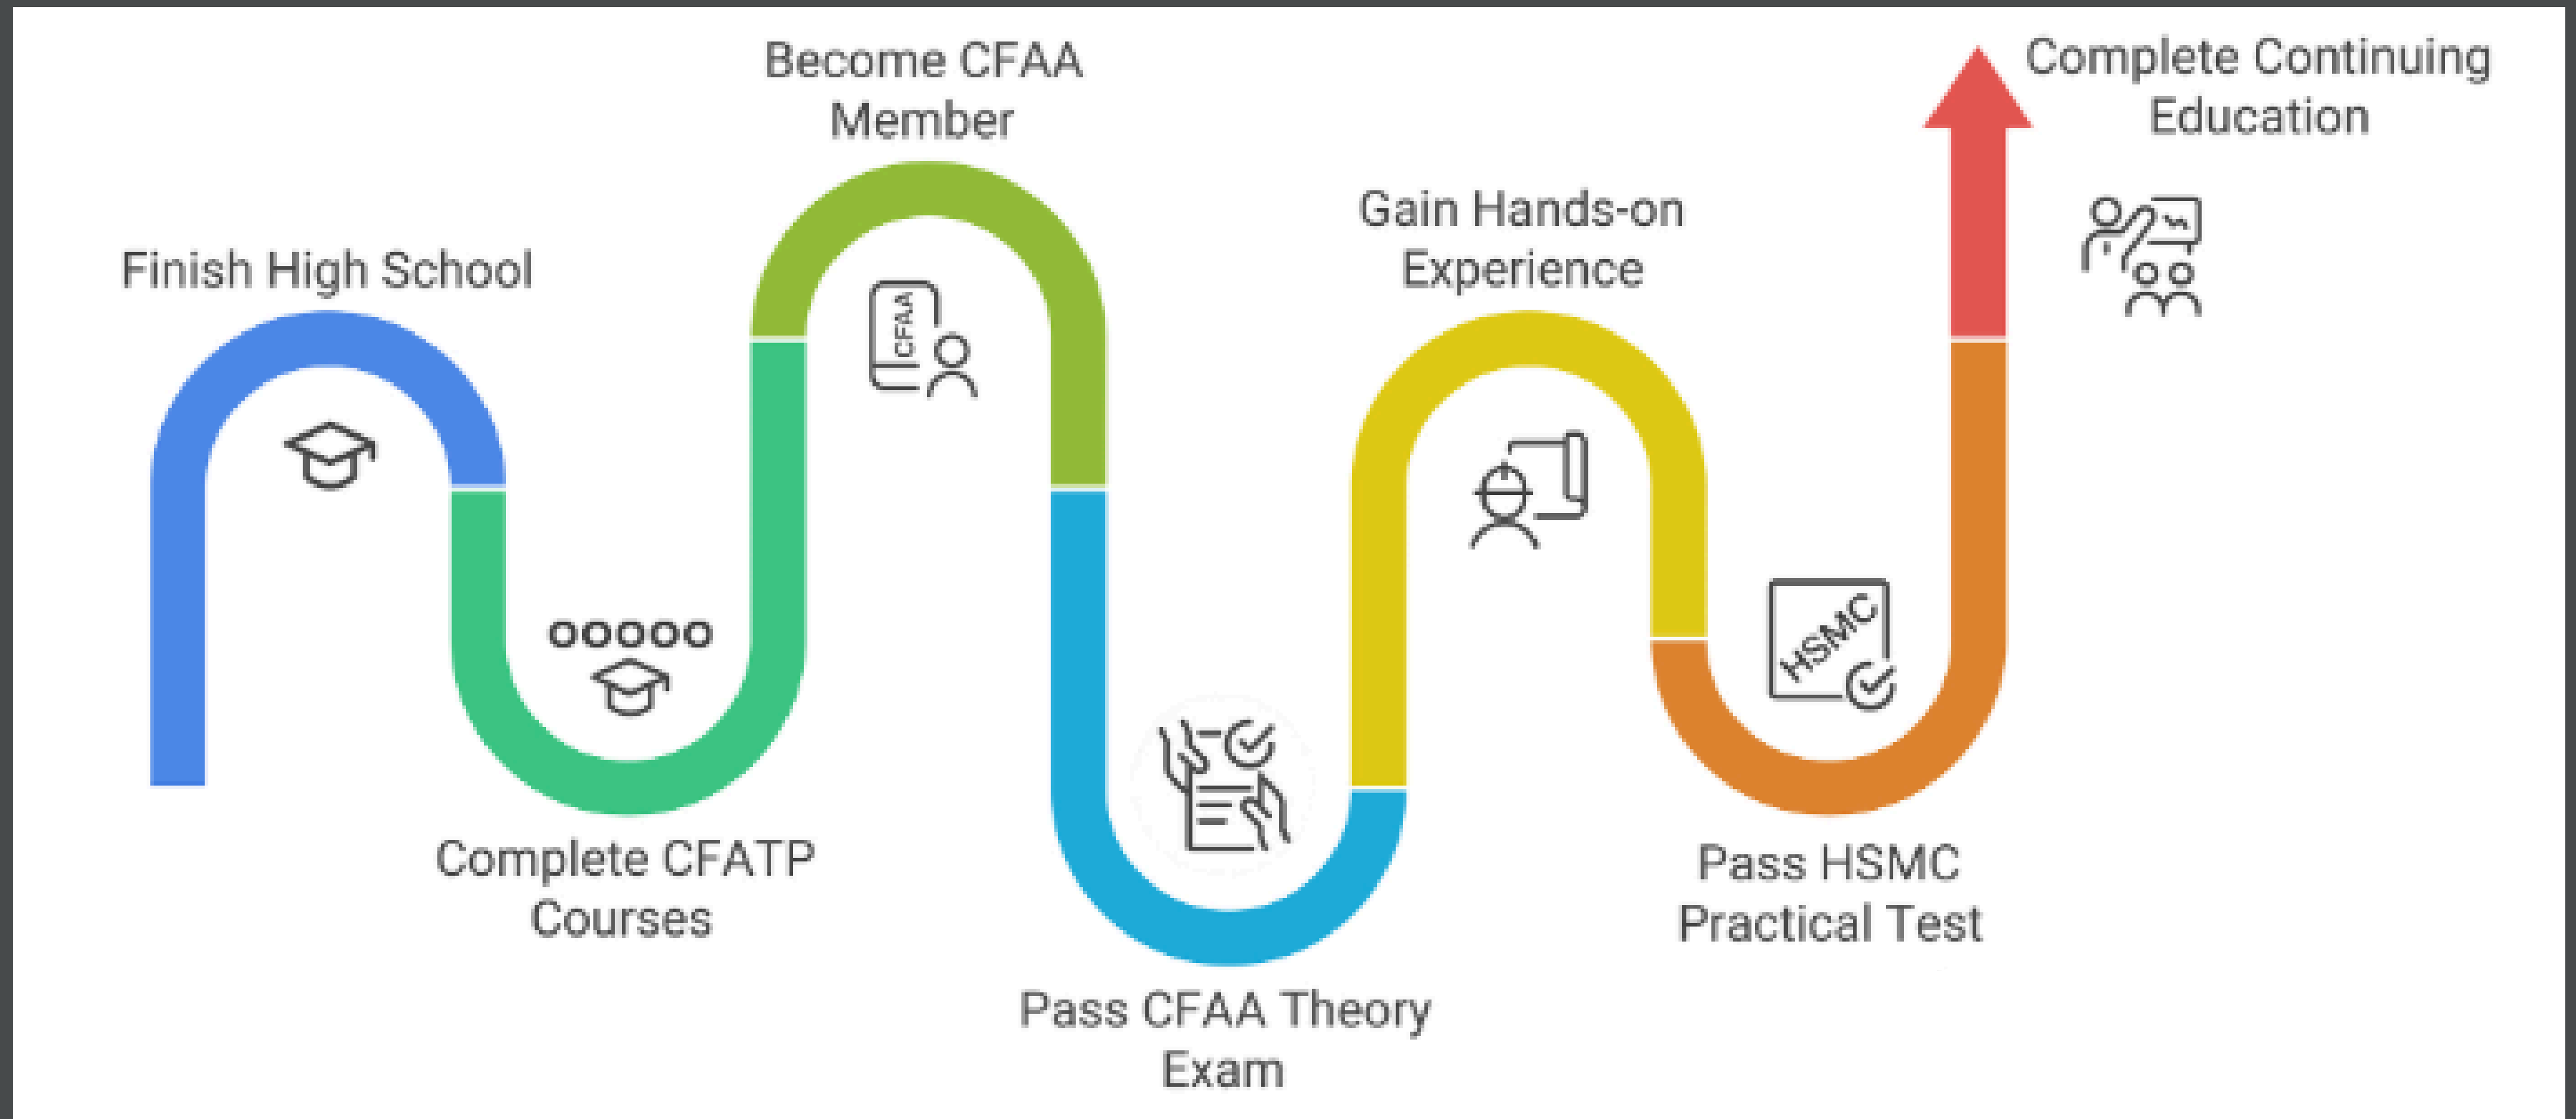

Real-World Skills

Many people also use Fire Alarm Technician experience as a stepping stone into related fields like:

- Fire services and firefighting
- Fire prevention and inspections
- Life-safety consulting
- System design and engineering support
- Occupational health and safety

Steps to Become a Fire Alarm Technician

The Canadian Fire Alarm Technology Program

- Accelerated - complete theory in about 11 weekends
- Weekend-Based Program - keep up with school or work
- Hybrid Learning - combining virtual and in-person
- Personalized Support - experienced instructors (live)
- Employers - connections and job placement support

Health and Safety Management College

Through Education,
We Help Keep People Safe.

hsmcollege.ca

1-877-905-2040